

Father/Son Healing Seminar

A weekend seminar for relational healing

This unique healing seminar is a powerful weekend for fathers and sons to come together, tear down walls and get to know each other from the inside out. Come and experience a healing retreat that will help you establish deeper connections and a lifelong alliance of love.

Exercises include:

- Healing past wounds
- Forgiving, understanding and accepting each other
- Healthy male bonding
- Learning about each other's love language
- Fathers blessing sons, and sons honoring fathers

This two-day interactive seminar will provide you with breakthroughs and bonding

Experience of a father: "I expected the primary benefit of the Father-Son weekend would have been for my son, but instead I benefited in ways I could never imagine. The bond that was formed between my son and me this weekend will forever remain with us. The other fathers in the seminar were likewise moved, as our Heavenly Father moved sons toward fathers and fathers toward sons. What a blessing!" KV

There is hope for healing wounds and deepening the bond of love between father and son. Come experience acceptance and learn skills to continue the journey of love.

"This weekend had a profound effect upon my relationship with my father. I learned more about my dad than I knew before. This has helped me see why things are the way they are in our relationship. We can now work through them to get closer." BA

"I have to compliment the three staff members orchestrating a very fulfilling weekend, I learned an awful lot about my son, myself, and our relationship that I didn't know and would not have learned without your help. Thank you for the eye-opening experience this weekend. I also have a plan for the next steps to take." DP
